Great Lakes Tourney Results

From 9/30/07 Press Release

The Penn State Lady Icers started their year with a pre-season tournament over the weekend in Lansing, Michigan. The Lady Icers faced off with Ohio State, Michigan State and Grand Valley State in the Great Lakes Tourney held at the Capital Centre.

On Friday, the Lady Icers played well against Ohio State but came up short, losing 4-2. Marley Stellman and Chelsea Sacks both tallied goals for the Lady Icers. MaryBeth DeYenno had an assist on Sacks' goal while newcomers Christina Swomley and Casey Robinson both recorded their first points as Lady Icers, assisting on Stellmans goal.

On Saturday morning, the Lady Icers brought their short bench to line up against a powerful and fast Michigan State team. While the Lady Icers were able to put up a good showing for two periods, Michigan States size and speed overcame the Lady Icers and they fell 8-1. The lone Lady Icer goal was scored by Jessica Waldron, assisted by Julie Patterson and Sacks.

In the afternoon, Penn State faced the Grand Valley State Lakers, whose bench more closely resembled that of the Lady Icers. The final score found Penn State on top 11-6 with the scoring fest led by Sacks with 4 goals and 4 assists. Also scoring were: Caitlyn Sawyer (1 goal), Marley Stellman (1 goal), Jessica Waldron (1 goal, 3 assists), MaryBeth DeYenno (2 goals, 2 assists), and Casey Robinson who scored her first two goals as a Lady Icer and added two assists as well.

The Sunday morning consolation game was a rematch between the Lakers and the Lady Icers and this time, Penn State dominated the game, winning 7-0. Waldron recorded a hat trick, Sacks added two goals and an assist, and DeYenno had two goals. Stellman, Sacks, Robinson all had an assist and Julie Patterson had two assist. Also, after playing goal in the first period, Gena Goldbaum returned to the ice in the second as a defender and tallied an assist.
